Do You Talk To Your Children About Race by Trillia Newbell (Desiring God)

Book for parents:

Because we know it starts with us before we can lead our children in this way, a great adult, faith-based read and starting place is LaTasha Morrison's Be the Bridge book. The Be the Bridge website and her podcast are full of resources that can be worked through individually or as a group.

Be the Bridge: Pursuing God's Heart for Racial Reconciliation by LaTasha Morrison

MultiChildren Book list:

**Several of these books are in the Spartanburg County Library System!**

Also some of these suggestions are not Christian books, but they celebrate all kinds of skin tones and are good jumping off points for conversations with preschoolers
